God is the great protector

---

- “You will not fear the terror of night, nor the arrow that flies by day, nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness, nor the plague that destroys at midday. A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you.

God is the great protector

- You will only observe with your eyes and see the punishment of the wicked.” Psalm 91:5-8

God is the great protector

- Powerful guard

God is the great protector

- Spiritual attack - terror of the night
- The message is God is in control
- Physical attack - men and enemies
- The message is God is concerned

God is the peace giver

- “If you say, “The LORD is my refuge,”and you make the Most High your dwelling, no harm will overtake you, no disaster will come near your tent.” Psalm 91:9-10

God is the peace giver

---

- We live in the now and the not yet of our salvation
- Believe in a now application of God's presence
- Have confidence in the not yet and still to be fulfilled completion

God is the peace giver

---

- “For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways; they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone. You will tread on the lion and the cobra; you will trample the great lion and the serpent.”

Psalm 91:11-13

God is the peace giver

---

- “Do not put the Lord your God to the test”

God is the peace giver

- We are to trust in God's plan and perfect will
- We have a hope which is not limited to our time driven lives but which stands true outside and over time

God is the promise maker

---

- What is God saying to me in this promise?

- “Because he loves me,” says the LORD, “I will rescue him; I will protect him, for he acknowledges my name. He will call on me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble, I will deliver him and honour him. With long life I will satisfy him and show him my salvation.” Psalm 91:14-16
