Nehemiah 7

It is a great joy to be a part of the body of Christ as we commit ourselves to great work for the Lord.

It is a great joy to follow the Christ of the body as he leads us in doing great work for the Lord.

In the midst of great victory comes the potential for great vulnerability.

‘After the wall had been rebuilt and I had set the doors in place, the gatekeepers, the musicians and the Levites were appointed.’

Neh 7: 1 (NIV)

‘When all our enemies heard about this, all the surrounding nations were afraid and lost their self-confidence, because they realised that this work had been done with the help of our God.’

Henry Drummond

“To become Christ-like is the only thing in the world worth caring for, the thing before which every ambition of man is folly and lower achievement vain”

‘Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children’

Eph 5: 1 (NIV)

‘I gave my brother Hanani charge over Jerusalem – for he was a faithful man and feared God more than many’

Neh 7: 2 (NRSV)

‘Whoever can be trusted with

Luke 16: 10a (NIV)

Charles Spurgeon

“I am perfectly sure, that if I had not been willing to preach to those small gatherings of people in obscure country places, I should never have had the privilege of preaching to thousands of men and women in large buildings all over the land.”

Fear of God

יְהוָה

“Y-H-W-H”

“Unfortunately, many of us presume that the world is the ultimate threat and that God's function is to offset it. How different this is from the biblical position that God is far scarier than the world When we assume that the world is the ultimate threat, we give it unwarranted power, for in truth, the world's threats are temporary. When we expect God to balance the stress of the world, we reduce him to the world's equal

As I walk with the Lord, I discover that God poses an ominous threat to my ego, but not to me. He rescues me from my delusions, so he may reveal the truth that sets me free. He casts me down, only to lift me up again. He sits in judgment of my sin, but forgives me nevertheless. Fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, but love from the Lord is its completion.”

William D. Eisenhower

Fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom,
But love from the Lord is its completion.

'He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes on ahead of them, and his sheep follow him because they know his voice'

The image features a dark grey, cracked surface that resembles weathered concrete or stone. In the center, there is an irregularly shaped hole. The interior of this hole is filled with a vibrant blue material that has a fine, woven texture, similar to canvas or a heavy fabric. Centered within this blue area is the word "GO" written in a clean, white, sans-serif font. The cracks around the hole are jagged and vary in thickness, adding to the rugged appearance of the background.
