LUKE 1:67-79

SONG OF

PRAISE

'Praise be to the Lord, the God of Israel, because he has come to his people and redeemed them.

He has raised up a horn of salvation for us
in the house of his servant David (as he said through his holy prophets of long ago)
salvation from our enemies
and from the hand of all who hate us -

to show mercy to our ancestors
and to remember his holy covenant,
the oath he swore to our father Abraham:
to rescue us from the hands of our enemies,
and to enable us to serve him without fear
in holiness and righteousness before him
all our days.'

Luke 1:67-75

REDEMPTION

‘to serve him without fear in holiness

‘And you, my child, will be called a prophet of the Most High;
for you will go on before the Lord to prepare the
way for him,
to give his people the knowledge of salvation
through the forgiveness of their sins,

‘because of the tender mercy of our God,
by which the rising sun will come to us from heaven
to shine on those living in darkness
and in the shadow of death,
to guide our feet into the path of peace.’

Luke 1:76-79

“Men of Galilee,” they said. “Why do you stand here looking into the sky? This same Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come back in the same way you have seen him go into heaven.”

Acts 1:11

‘May he strengthen your hearts so that you will be blameless and holy in the presence of our God and Father when our Lord Jesus comes with all his holy ones.’
