

let us be Magi

The background of the slide is a dark blue sky with a bright, multi-pointed starburst in the upper center. In the lower left, there are silhouettes of two camels and a rider against a dark horizon. A white curved line separates the image from the text on the right.

The Magi – New Beginnings

Isaiah 43:18-19 “Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland.

We have come to worship Him

So they committed themselves to the will of God and resolved to proceed.

William Bradford

The background of the slide features a dark blue sky with a bright, multi-pointed starburst in the upper center. In the lower-left foreground, the silhouettes of two camels and a rider are visible against the dark horizon. A white curved line separates the image from the text on the right.

The Magi – New Beginnings

V 12 – they returned by another route

Worshipping Jesus changed them

2 Corinthians 5:17 - Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!

let us be Magi

