

A Journey of Repentance

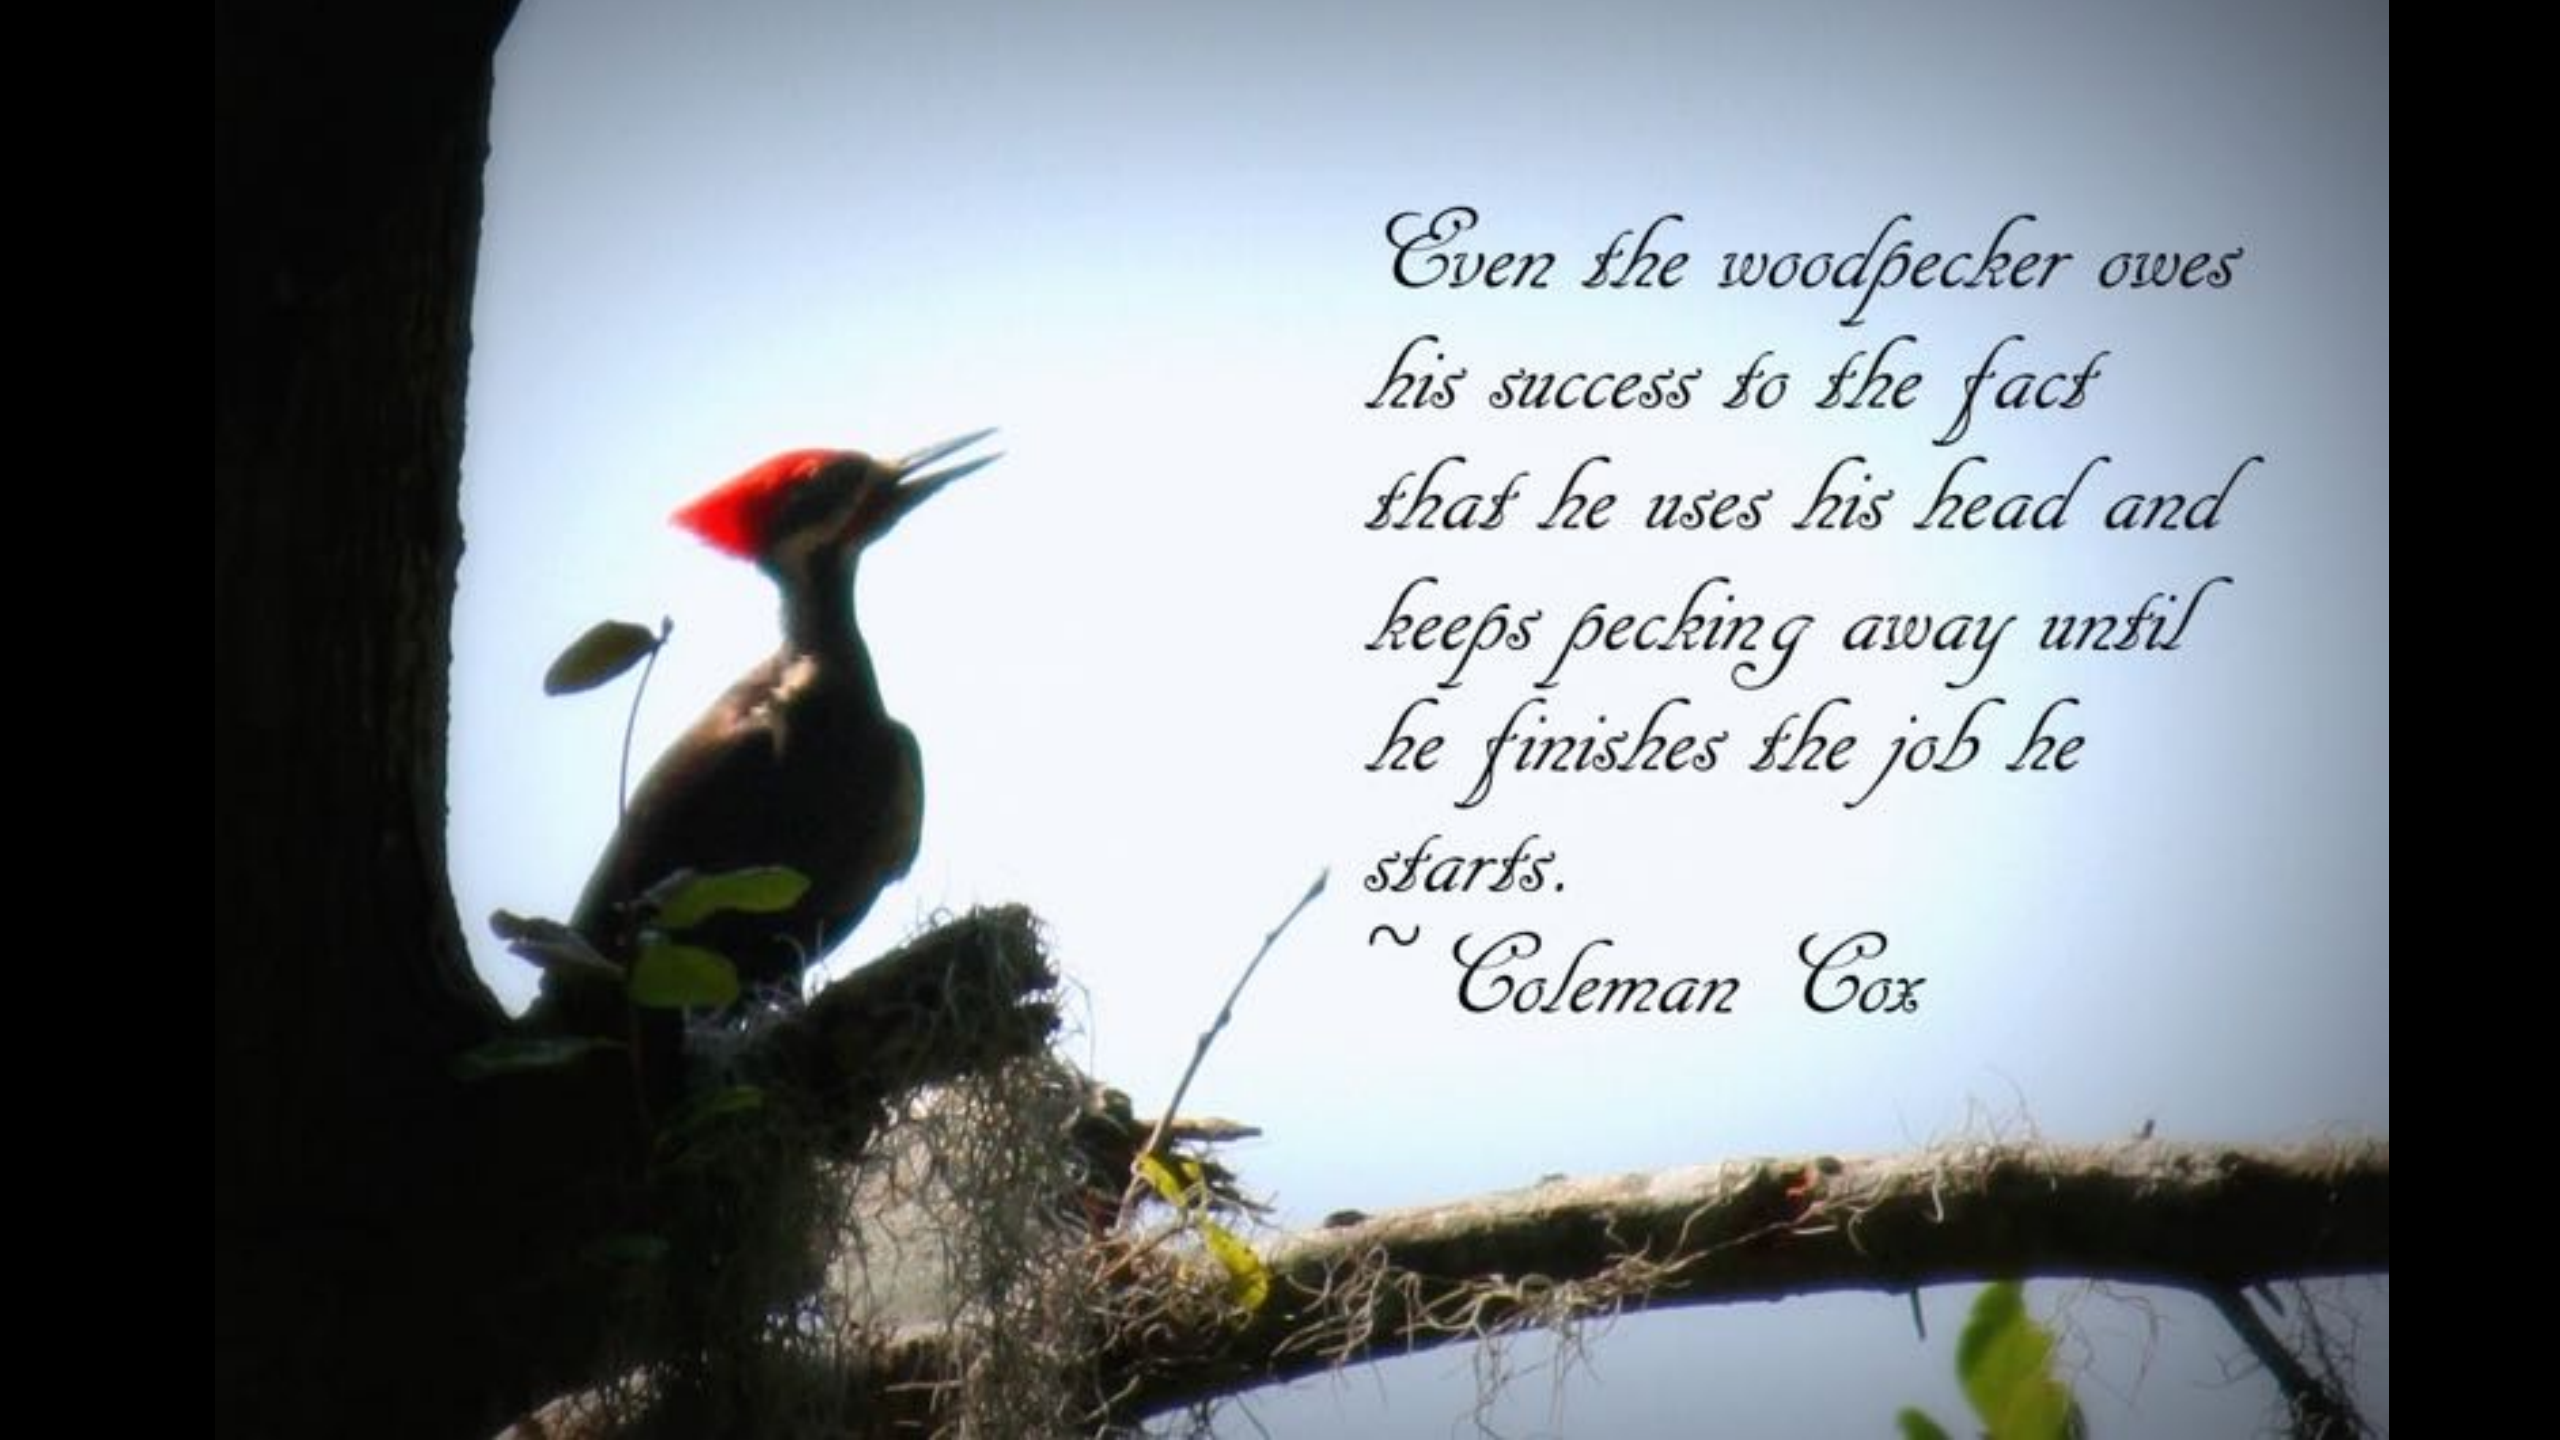

““We died to sin; how can we live in it any longer? Or don’t you know that all of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were therefore buried with him through baptism into death in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too may live a new life.

A Journey of Repentance

Rom 6 - past tense – “we died”, we “were buried”, “our old self was crucified”.

Jesus says in Luke 9, “23 Then he said to them all: “If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me.”

A woodpecker with a bright red crest and black body is perched on a tree branch. The bird is facing right, with its head tilted upwards and its beak open. The background is a clear, light blue sky. The tree branch is dark and textured, with some green leaves visible.

Even the woodpecker owes his success to the fact that he uses his head and keeps pecking away until he finishes the job he starts.

~ Coleman Cox

It's one thing to affirm that God is free to do as God wills in this world. The real crunch comes in allowing God the freedom and trust to act in one's own life.

DYING TO LIVE

Becoming Like Christ: Dying to Self

For sin shall
no longer
be your master,
because you are
not under the law,
but under grace.
